

Dear Customer/Supplier

As you all will know, there is a new legislation coming in to force on the 25th May 2018 that effects the way business treats the personal data of the individual. We at ESC Global Ltd would like to confirm to you the information we hold on both customers and suppliers, this being –

- Bank details
- Purchasing/sales contact information (phone number, email address)
- Accounts contact information (phone number, email address)
- Address and postal code

This is the extent of the information we store for both customers and suppliers. If anyone has an issue with this please do not hesitate to contact us.

Thank you for your cooperation.
